

Let's Learn the Rules

with Clark the Shark

A Class Book

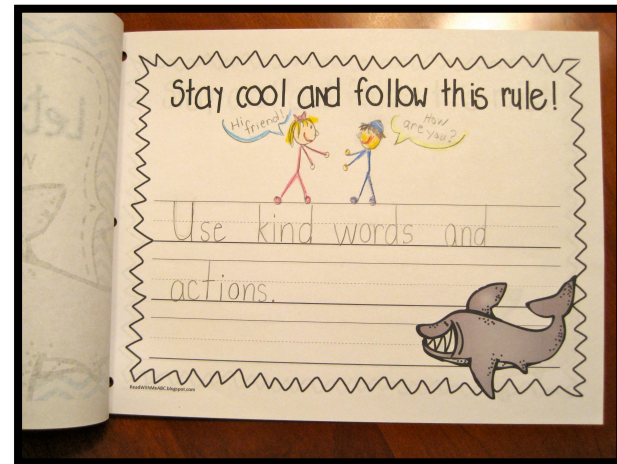

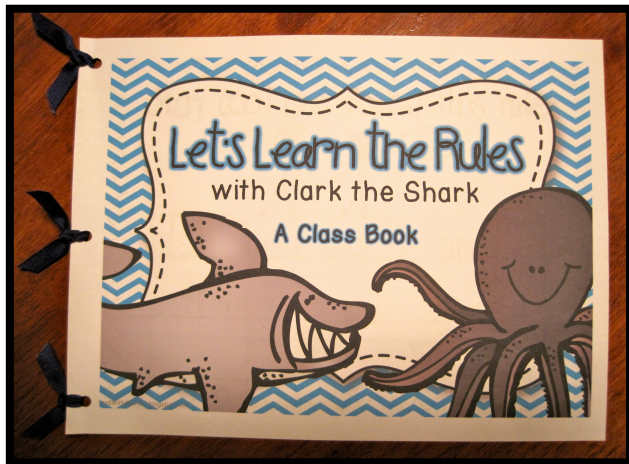

Directions:

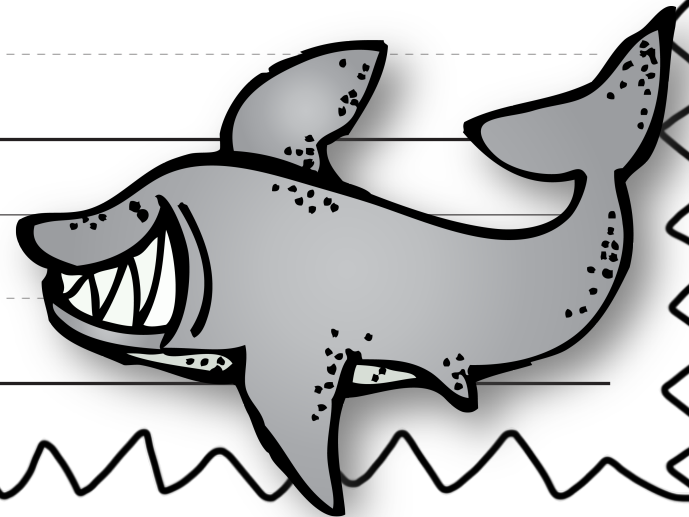

Lesson Idea: Clark the Shark is a great book choice for launching a conversation about classroom rules. After reading the story, explain to students that classroom rules are made to keep us safe so we can learn. Ask students to brainstorm rules that they think are important. Make a list on chart paper.

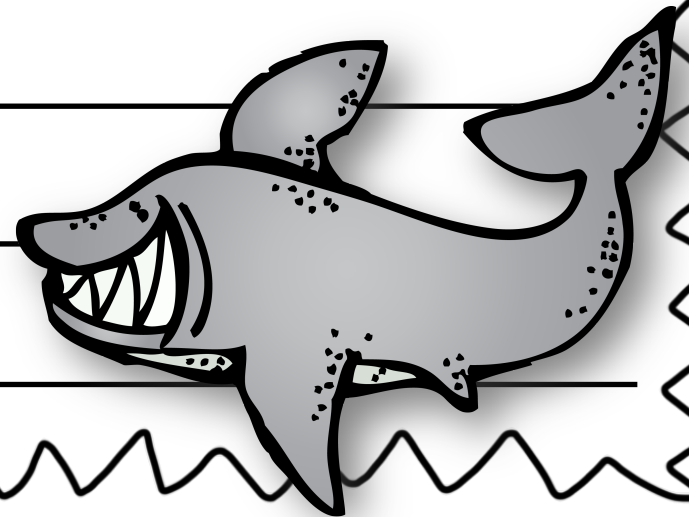

Activity: Each student chooses a rule to illustrate and write about on the "Stay cool and follow this rule!" sheet. Then, the teacher binds the sheets together to make a class book about the classroom rules.

Stay cool and follow this rule!
